3.) The Pilgrims and Wampanoags assisted each other in many ways. Squanto taught the Pilgrims the perfect locations to fish and hunt. (pg 142) Planting corn was another skill Squanto taught them. (pg 142) This shows they learned from each other life skills. As a result, both groups benefited incredibly.

1.) Puritan settlers began towns in New England for many different benefits. English law said Puritans had to be a part of the Church of England. (pg 139)
